1. LIMITED WARRANTY

1.1 Definitions and Table Description

Actual Power Output.

Actual Power Output means the power output of the Module, expressed in Watts, measured at STC at a given point in time in a year after the Warranty Start Date, corrected for any measurement error, as per IEC 61215.

Annual Degradation Rate.

For each year after the first year following the Warranty Start Date until the end of the applicable Limited Power Warranty Period, HOUNEN warrants that the Degradation Rate of Modules shall not exceed the applicable Annual Degradation Rate set forth at Table 1 applicable for each Module Type.

Degradation Rate.

Degradation Rate means any positive amount calculated in accordance with the following formula, expressed as a percent:

Degradation Rate = (Nominal Power Output-Actual Power Output)/Nominal Power Output×100%

First Year Degradation Rate.

In the first year following the Warranty Start Date, the applicable maximum Degradation Rate of Modules set forth at Table 1.

Nominal Power Output.

Nominal Power Output means the original manufactured nameplate specification of power in the Module (Maximum Power, P_{max}), expressed in Watts, and measured at STC, excluding any specified positive tolerance.

Standard Test Conditions (STC).

Air mass 1.5; Irradiance 1000W/m²; Cell Temperature 25°C

Warranty Start Date.

HOUNEN provides the Limited Warranty set forth herein commencing upon the earlier of one of the following dates:

- A. The date which is one hundred and eighty (180) days following the Module manufacture date;
- B. Delivery date of the Module to the original purchaser thereof.

P_{1st year, %}.

P_{1st year, %} represents the warranted Actual Power Output of Modules at the end of the first year following the Warranty Start Date.

$$P_{1st\ year, \%} = 100\% * (1 - \text{First Year Degradation Rate})$$

P_{N year, %}.

P_{N year, %} represents the warranted Actual Power Output of Modules at the end of a year(N) after the first year following the Warranty Start Date until the end of the applicable Limited Power Warranty Period as specified at Table 1.

$$P_{N\ year, \%} = 100\% * (1 - (\text{First Year Degradation Rate} + \text{Annual Degradation Rate} * (N - 1))),$$

With N, 2 ≤ N ≤ Limited Power Warranty Period

1.2 Limited Product Warranty

Beginning of the Warranty Start Date and for the Limited Product Warranty Period, HOUNEN warrants that the Module and its respective DC connectors and cables (hereinafter referred to as the “Products”) will be free from material defects in workmanship which impair the performance of the Products. Material defects shall not include changes in appearance or normal wear and tear of the Products.

1.3 Limited Power Warranty

Beginning on Warranty Start Date and for the first year following the Warranty Start Date, HOUNEN warrants that the Degradation Rate of Modules shall not exceed the applicable First Year Degradation Rate; for each year after the first year, the Degradation Rate of Modules shall not exceed the applicable Annual Degradation Rate, as set forth at Table 1.

2. Warranty Claim and Remedies

2.1 Warranty Claim

a) Customer shall bear the burden of establishing a breach of the Limited Product Warranty or Limited Power Warranty (collectively, "Warranties"), and if Customer believes that there has been a breach of the warranties, Customer shall promptly and no later than thirty (30) days via email info@hounensolar.com & cs@hounen.cn after knowledge thereof, provide notice to HOUNEN setting forth the following evidentiary documents or information related to the claim:

- 1) Identifying information of the claimant;
- 2) A detailed description of the claim;
- 3) Supporting materials including photos of affected modules or testing reports;
- 4) Series number, types, and numbers of affected module;
- 5) Evidence of purchase of the affected Module and Warranty Start Date;
- 6) Initial installation location;
- 7) Other supplementary information required by HOUNEN;
- 8) Upon request by HOUNEN, the actual Module(s) allegedly causing the breach.

In the event that Customer fails to notify HOUNEN and provide the relevant information of (1)-(8) as described above, HOUNEN is entitled to refuse to process the relevant claim without any liability.

b) HOUNEN will review and evaluate alleged claims after receipt of the claim and full information as stipulated herein. If HOUNEN at its sole discretion considers it necessary, HOUNEN can request the Modules be shipped to the Independent Testing Lab for testing. In the event Customer returns the Modules without written consent from HOUNEN, the risks (including but not limited to damage and loss of the Modules) and expenses related to the Modules shall be borne by Customer.

c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, HOUNEN shall be entitled, in HOUNEN's role discretion upon written notice to Customer, to require that any breach of the Warranties alleged by Customer be reviewed by CSA, Intertek, TÜV Rheinland, TÜV SÜD, TÜV NORD, PI, DEKRA, SGS or other neutral third party testing laboratory selected by HOUNEN and approved by Customer, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed ("Independent Testing Lab"). The power measurement tolerance of any testing equipment utilized by any Independent Testing Lab in performing tests required by this Section 2.1(c)] shall be disclosed in writing to both Parties prior to performance of any such tests and shall be reflected in any final test results provided by the Independent Testing Lab. The determination by an Independent Testing Lab as to whether a breach has occurred shall be final and conclusive with respect to the matters covered by such determination. In all measurements of Actual Power Output, the effect of test uncertainty needs to be considered as per IEC 61215.

d) HOUNEN shall first bear reasonable testing costs incurred by the Independent Testing Lab pursuant to Section 2.1(c) hereto, including but not limited to shipping, testing services, and insurance. However, Customer shall promptly upon receipt of notice indemnify HOUNEN for all such costs on a dollar-for-dollar basis in the event that the independent Testing Lab is unable to confirm a breach of the Warranties or, if no Independent Testing Lab was utilized, Customer is otherwise unable to establish a breach of the Warranties.

e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Limited Warranty, HOUNEN shall not be liable to the successors and permitted assigns of the Limited Warranty for the portion of warranty benefits that arising from the similar root cause and has already been processed and/or enjoyed prior to the transfer of this Limited Warranty. For the avoidance of doubt, the benefits of the successors and permitted assigns of the Limited Warranty shall exclude the portion claimed by the previous Customer.

2.2 Remedies for Claims

a) Remedies Option

In the event that the Modules(s) breaches the Warranties, then HOUNEN shall, at its sole discretion, provide one of the following remedies:

- 1) Repair the defective Modules. In such case, HOUNEN shall prepare the repair project plan and carry out the repair project for the affected modules;
or
- 2) Replace the defective Modules. In such case, the replacement modules'

Actual Power Output shall be no less than the Theoretical Minimum Residual Warranty Power Output of the replaced Module(s)
Theoretical Minimum Residual Warranty Power Output = Nominal Power Output * (1 - (First Year Degradation Rate + Annual Degradation Rate * (N-1)))
Note: year N, $0 \leq N \leq$ Limited Power Warranty Period; or

3) Refund the Residual Value of the defective modules or refund the Value Equivalent of the Output Gap (Gap between the Theoretical Minimum Residual Warranty Power Output and the Actual Power Output of the defective Module(s))

Residual Value = Current Price (price-per-watt) * Nominal Power Output * (Left-over Limited Power Warranty Period / Limited Power Warranty Period)

Value Equivalent of Output Gap = Current Price (price-per-watt) * (Theoretical Minimum Residual Warranty Power Output - Actual Power Output)

The current price (price-per-watt) is determined by HOUNEN; or

4) Provide additional Module(s) to compensate for the power output loss for any Module which causes a breach of the Warranties.

b) Remedies Description

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, additional, repaired or replacement Modules shall be delivered to the same destination and on the same INCOTERMS 2020 delivery basis that the original Module causing breach of the Warranties was delivered under the purchase agreement to which this Limited Warranty applies. Replaced Modules received by HOUNEN pursuant to Section 2.2 shall be the sole property of HOUNEN. HOUNEN shall be solely responsible for all shipping costs incurred performing its additional supply, repair or replacement obligations under this Section 2.2(b). For avoidance of doubt, it is expressly stated here that any costs incurred due to dismantling, repacking, installation or re-installation the Modules(s) and other related expenses shall be borne by the Customer. Additional or replacement Module shall be of the same type and physical form as the original Module, electrically compatible with the original Module, and have an electrical output of not less than the warranted power output of the original Module at the time of supply or replacement, based on the warranted degradation rates set forth at Section 1 hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if HOUNEN no longer supplies Modules meeting the foregoing criteria, then additional or replacement Modules provided under this Section 2.2(b) shall be those Modules then supplied by HOUNEN most substantially meeting the foregoing criteria. HOUNEN's performance of any repair, replacement or additional supply pursuant to this Section 2.2(b) shall not extend the term of any Warranties.

Unless otherwise agreed upon in the underlying purchase agreement, Customer shall dispose of out-of-use Module(s) in accordance with applicable regulations on electronic waste treatment and disposal at its own cost and the same shall not be reworked, re-sold or re-used in any way. If HOUNEN determines to retrieve such Modules, the ownership of same is deemed to belong to HOUNEN, and HOUNEN shall bear the transportation costs related with delivery of the Module(s) from their original place to the destination location designated by HOUNEN.
